

Art Education BFA Portfolio Review

Requirements

- * A completed application form, available in the Art + Design office (FAV 122)
- * Current unofficial transcript <https://www.usu.edu/registrar/records/access>
- * A minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA
- * Portfolio of 10 digital images with correlated image index (include image thumbnails and information: title, media, size, year completed) combined into a single pdf document and submitted to Dennise Gackstetter at dennise.g@usu.edu

General Expectations

Students applying for the BFA Art Education program are expected to demonstrate outstanding creativity via portfolio, which will also be used to examine the applicant's ability to develop and execute the conceptual use of the medium with respect to the contemporary issues in art. During the interview, students must also demonstrate verbal competency in discussing their work with the reviewers. They will also articulate their interest in becoming a teacher.

Review Date

Portfolios are due the first Friday in January. Candidates will be contacted to schedule interviews after the initial portfolio review is completed.

Additional Requirements

The BFA in Art education is a composite degree. Therefore, students accepted to the BFA in the Art Education program must then apply to the Secondary Education program in the Teacher Education And Leadership program in the College of Education. Students must be accepted into the Secondary Education program in order to continue in the BFA in Art Education program.
