

Virtual Maker Space for Students with Disabilities

09/21/2020

Explore "The Masks We Wear" through technology and the arts from home through interactive virtual meetings with top artists, sponsored by the Chaos Learning Lab and the College of Arts & Sciences Arts Access Program. This includes a free art virtual maker space. Instructional videos and supplies will be provided. Students with disabilities in grades 7-12 are eligible.

To sign up or ask questions, please email Stephanie White at stephanie.white@usu.edu. Registration closes on Monday, September 28, 2020.

Zoom sessions are held on every Friday from 3:00 pm - 4:30 pm between October 2 and December 11, 2020.
