

Jamie was born in Logan, Utah and will graduate with a BFA in Painting and Graphic Design. She has contributed to a number of exhibitions during her time at Utah State University. Her work has been presented in The Fall Salon (2016), Logan Fine Art Gallery; The Undergrad Show (2015-2017), USU; Paper and Clay (2017), USU; Perspectives (2018), CFWG; and Fringe (2019), USU.

Jamie works extensively across both disciplines—from print and web design to fine art. But in either realm, she always keeps a pencil and paper nearby to scribble down ideas and concepts.
