

Learning Objectives - Ancient Languages and Cultures (Master's degree)

1. Students will have demonstrable proficiency in reading their chosen ancient language(s).
2. Students will demonstrate an ability to use appropriate methodological tools to study peoples who used the ancient language(s).
3. Students will compose a master's thesis which demonstrates the ability to utilize ancient language(s) and appropriate methodologies in carrying out an original research project.