

Undergraduate Academic Opportunity Award

The Department of Political Science is pleased to provide financial support for declared International Studies, Law & Constitutional Studies, and Political Science undergraduate majors and pre-majors. The Undergraduate Academic Opportunity Awards (UAOA) will support students for domestic or international internships, study abroad, or to present research at a conference.

Applications will be evaluated on the basis of how the opportunity will allow applicants to complete their degree and enhance their intellectual and professional growth. The evaluation criteria may also include number of major credits completed, GPA, extra-curricular activities, previous receipt of an UAOA, and financial need.

Awards are as follows, and can be as much as:

$500 – Domestic Conference $1000 – Domestic Internships
$1500 – International Internships or Study Abroad

Opportunity Deadlines:
Spring, November 29th and Summer/Fall, March 15th

Name:

A#:

Major:

Overall GPA:

Completed Credits:

Type of opportunity:

Description of the opportunity:

How will the opportunity enhance your academic and/or professional growth?

Have you received an UAOA before?

If yes what semester was it awarded, at what amount, and for what type of opportunity?

Extra-curricular activities and contributions:

Would you like to provide a statement about financial need?

Email your application and the following to candi.checketts@usu.edu or drop off to Main 320:
Unofficial Transcript | Confirmation of participation in the opportunity