Reanna Cook

Degree: BFA Theatre Education

Graduation Year: 2021

What is she up to now?

Reanna is the Theatre Teacher at Granite Park Jr. High in South Salt Lake where she teaches 6-8 grade.

Note from Reanna: "We are a Title I school with an incredible concentration of multilingual learners. When it started, it was only the second year that Granite Park had ever offered theatre classes, and I have built the program into something truly meaningful to our community and student body. We put on two shows a year, and our production of Freaky Friday runs April 17-19 at 7 PM. I also run my school's Dungeon and Dragon's club, and it brings me immense joy!"
