Meet Dylan Seeley!

Dylan Seeley is majoring in BFA Theatre Education (K-12) Certification.

"Theatre has always been something that I have loved due to how it consistently challenges the way we think and encourages one to fantasize about the world one can create."

After graduation, Dylan would like to be placed in a high school teaching role, in position to build a new standard for theatre. She would also like to open a small, non-profit to provide theatre in both performance and educational setting in communities that lack those experiences.

Fun Fact: "Romeo and Juliet is one of my favorite plays."
