Meet Katie Ludlow!

Katie is a Junior in the BFA Theatre Education program.

"I have loved theatre since I was a little girl. Instead of hanging out with friends as a kid, I would block, act out, and even design my favorite musicals in my bedroom.

As an adult, I've grown to appreciate the versatility of theatre as a form of storytelling and how it can bring people together."

After graduation from Utah State University, Katie plans to go on to earn her MFA in Directing and pursue a career as a director.

Asked what advice she'd leave behind for those coming after her, Katie responded,

"Nothing is as important as your well-being! Keep your peace, learn to balance work and play, and enjoy your life!"
